

Gorilla

The gorilla is a large primate that feeds off herbs and plants. They are very intelligent and live in groups under the command of a male leader. They move on all fours with their knuckles on the ground. Usually they use tools like rocks and sticks